Fourier transformed local density of states in an s-wave superconductor with a broken inversion symmetry

GRZEGORZ HARAŃ, MARCIN KOŁODZIEJ

Politechnika Wrocławska

Assuming a constant s-wave pair potential for a noncentrosymmetric superconductor we derive a Fourier transform of a local density of states in a vicinity of an isolated scattering center. We identify a number of singularities which correspond to nontrivial Cooper pairs formed in such a system.